0) Role of ICT in managing globally distributed Projects
1) Build a Contact list containing phone no. Skype and Emails and email to everyone
2) Setup of Project Resources
2.1) Team Should develop a thorough understanding of the topic and Gaps that exist in current literature
2.2) Create a one drive Folder
2.3) Make a list of Online Databases and Journals that have publications specific to IT and PM
3) Initial Literature Survey and Topic Selection(involves every reading 5–10 papers each, summarising the findings and sharing it with other team members)
4) Read Up on 'Project Management in Remote teams' as potential topic for team
5) Search Strategy – Finalising databases Finding keywords relevant to research question
6) Report Writing – Core Sections
6.1) Write Intro and Background of the report
6.2) Find and Critically Review 10 relevant papers to construct a literature review table
6.3) Improve Quality of literature review table
6.4) Write Report Section – ‘Problems faced by remote teams’
6.5) Write Report Section – ‘Media Communication Strategy’
6.6) Write Report Section – ‘Risk Management of Remote teams’
6.7) Assemble the review table and merge sections of the report submitted by everyone
6.8) Covert references submitted into Harvard Style Referencing
6.9) Write Research Motivation and Methodology Section
7) Presentation Prep
7.1) Prepare Slides – Intro/Background/Research question/Conclusion
7.2) Prepare Slides – Risk Management of Remote Projects
7.3) Prepare Slides – Media Communication Strategy for Remote Projects
7.4) Prepare Slides – Remote Teams – Challenges and Problems faces
8) Write Abstract/Conclusion of the report
9) Convert the report to acis2014–submission–template format
10) Finalise Formatting and Proof Read
